Share your company's vacation plan

All time-off requests aggregate into a single shared calendar which is a real-time visual representation of the company's vacation plan.

The calendar can be viewed by day, week or month, and filtered to only show specific holidays or work teams.

Keep track of leave balances

Altamira Leave Management allows employees to quickly check their leave balance, instantly knowing their residual, accrued, and taken permits and leaves without painstakingly calculating them with their payslips. As a result, absence requests will be quicker and more thoughtful.

Manage expense reports and remote work

Our absence management software also keeps track of remote work and allows the attachment of expense reports for business trips, all without needing to purchase a separate HR module!

Organize your data and generate reports

All the information managed by the platform can be extracted and organized through the reporting system, generating valuable reports on absenteeism.

The Altamira Leave Management software provides many fully customizable report templates while allowing users to create and save as many as needed.
